

THE 'HERE'S-ONE-WE-MADE-EARLIER' SPORT RELIEF QUIZ

Calling all quiz lovers! Here you'll find everything you need to proudly hold your very own Sport Relief quiz. And we mean EVERYTHING.

Not only do we have the complete set of questions, answers (phew!) and scoresheets, but there's also top tips to get your fundraising off to a flying start. Just follow our handy guide below and you'll be changing lives in no time.

Let's get quizzical in six easy steps

Step 1: find a venue

Your lounge, a big boardroom at work or your local pub will do the job nicely, especially if you can use it for free.

Step 2: Tell everyone

Use our poster pack and tips on how to promote your fundraising so that your event is packed to the rafters.

Step 3: Pick a quizmaster

Ask someone with a belting voice to read out the questions. And make sure the answers are kept under wraps.

Step 4: Fundraise

Charge everyone a few pounds to take part or more for team entries.

Step 5: Choose your rounds

Pick which rounds you'd like to do, or go the distance and do them all.

Step 6: answers

Print and copy the answer sheets on page 7 - you'll need one for each team. Why not award a bonus point for the best team name.

Top Tip: Boost your fundraising total - sell cakes, treats or hold a raffle.

Top Tip: Pay for points - before you start, get each team to pay to double their points for one round. Or pay for a clue when they're stuck.

Top Tip: Blag a prize for the winning team - this will get people excited to enter. Try asking a local business to donate something in return for a 'thank you' at your event.

A big thank you goes to QuizQuizQuiz Ltd for supplying the questions and answers for this special Sport Relief quiz.
